

Handel's Messiah

Performed by

Waterperry Opera Festival

in aid of Wallingford Emergency Food Bank

A mosaic of Jesus Christ with a halo, set against a dark background. The mosaic is made of small, colorful tiles in shades of gold, red, and blue. Jesus is depicted with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a yellow robe with red stripes. He has a halo around his head, which is a circle with a cross inside. His hands are visible at the bottom, one holding a book.

An exquisite festive evening awaits on your doorstep!

Waterperry Opera Festival bring their ensemble of renowned singers and period instrumentalists to perform a candlelit Messiah concert. With a reduced orchestra and five soloists this intimate performance closely resembles how the piece would have been originally performed.
